Mr Petersen Ladies Need Love World

Alice Alford, Editor of the world, but he is not of the world. "Elder Petersen told Wednesday's national assembly, a member of the Twelve of the Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, said the youth of the world very dear to his heart. Elder Lord has a great work of generation.

Progressives believe the belief that freedom of the progressive ones. He said that the movements have been group efforts.

Petersen used Samson as an example of a man who put his name down before the world. He said that the aims of the group that led to the Jewish faith, Jesus failed Jews. He was predestined to free the Philistines, but he was followed his path. He married a Philistine and an affair with a Philistine. He said that after Jehovah had said that should not marry out of group.

Petersen said that men and their desires and their cooperation, will men agree thinking, will men agree progress.

Prom Assembly to Tell Engagement Party Tale

"D'Announce Du Bal," the Junior Prom Assembly, will be presented Friday at 10 a.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

The story takes place on the afternoon before the engagement party of Duke Gaspard de Bluppe. The conceited young man is played by Bill Jackson.

Diane Foster, Duchess Castiglania of Spain, the Duke's unseen fiancée, has not yet arrived. Jim Marshall and Carol Lynn Wright as Gaspard's parents, the Marquis and Marquise de Bluppe, become worried at the absence of Duchess Castiglania. They begin searching among their house guests for a girl to take her place.

The girls are unwilling, but their parents are extremely happy because of the great wealth of the de Bluppe's.

The story takes place in the gardens of the de Bluppe home. A chateau, gardens and a nine foot fountain brought from Salt Lake City will be used to add to the authenticity of the set.

Original music, written by Keith Burris, and a surprise ending will add spark to the enjoyment of the assembly.

The script was written by Tami Kirk and the choreography arranged and done by Phil Keeler and his dance group.

The prom theme has been built around the engagement of the Duke. The assembly is merely a party given for the guests prior to the engagement ball of that night.

Russia Steadfast in Planning To Take Over West Berlin

by United Press International

LONDON—The Soviet Union made it plain Thursday the West can expect no major concessions in Berlin at the forthcoming foreign ministers conference in Geneva. Soviet diplomats said Moscow was determined to stand fast by its plan to hand over West Berlin to the Communist East German regime, regardless of any settlement for the Western part of the city.

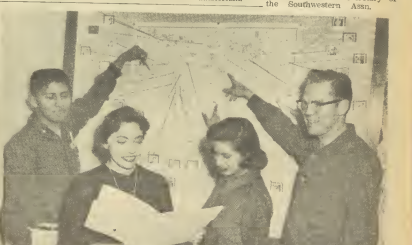

WASHINGTON—A congressional committee says the United States has fallen far behind Russia in civil defense training against nuclear attack.

The House Government Operations committee told Congress in a report Wednesday night that the "whole Russian population" is being trained in atomic defense.

Indians Gather For Discussion On 'Problems'

Delegates to the Third Regional Indian Youth Council, registered as of Wednesday, include 31 tribes from 14 states.

Many more are expected to register for the Thursday-Saturday convention according to H. H. Pattison, president of the Southwestern Asso. on Indian Affairs. Formerly this association was known as the Mexico Asso. on Indian Affairs, which for 37 years worked on problems involving the American Indian.

Discusses Problems
"In all our discussions of Indian problems," explained Pattison, "we always come back to the need for higher education as fundamental, for without it leaders cannot be developed to guide the tribes in critical days ahead when the numerous complex problems facing the Indian people will require technical knowledge and professional training for solution."

"In order to arrest the widening rift between the generations and gain tribal support as well as interest in higher education, a special effort has been made to attract tribal leaders to this meeting," Pattison said.

Invite Public
Students and townspersons are invited to attend a special session Saturday morning (9 a.m., Smith Auditorium) devoted to a discussion of general problems in Indian affairs, led by Charles E. Minton, Executive Secretary of the Southwestern Asso.

COUGAR Confidential

OUTMODDED RULE

Outmoded and unrealistic Skyline Conference rules don't allow freshmen to compete on an intercollegiate basis in baseball.

It's time that the Conference realized that what is good for football and basketball is also good, as well as necessary, for baseball. Other conferences sanction and condone intercollegiate competition for their frosh, and why not?

This type of competition can in the end only raise the standard of play in the loop and make college baseball in the Mountain States Athletic Conference a more attractive proposition for prospective athletes.

While track coach Clarence Robinson won't complain over the rule because it allows his varsity-caliber athletes to have four years of competition against varsity. Coach Jay Van Noy would like nothing better than to be able to schedule other freshman squads to give his boys added experience for future years.

Since all the schools in the loop have informal freshman teams which compete against their own varsities and play unofficial games, official sanction would hurt none of the schools.

One other big advantage to be seen is that the frosh will be able to garner a little public recognition for their work and thus will have more incentive to do their best.

The sharp increase in interest in college baseball in the area, along with the higher quality of play exhibited in the past few seasons seems reason enough to re-evaluate the conference rule and its meaning.

GRID REVIVAL

Santa Clara University, once a "big-time" football competitor, has decided to try its fortunes on the gridiron once again. Football has been absent from the Bronco campus since 1953 when financial pressure forced the small school to withdraw from competition.

For the sake of amateur athletics, I for one am really glad to see the Broncos finally making a realistic appraisal of their problem and giving their student body a well-rounded athletic program.

The program will be a "low pressure" one with no scholarships granted on an athletic basis. This is a step which most small private schools in the East have taken and which through the pioneering of Santa Clara could be established in California.

Perhaps with the example of the Broncos to guide them, USF, St. Mary's and Loyola will again join with Santa Clara in a league that will revive the old gridiron rivalry that died under pressure of "big money" interests.

Basketball Letters, Numerals Awarded

Varsity letters and freshmen numerals for members of BYU's basketball teams were announced Wednesday by Athletic Director Edwin R. Kimball.

Eleven members of Stan Watts' varsity plus 13 squad members of Bob Bunker's frosh squad will receive athletic awards for efforts during the 1968-69 season.

Letters Given To Gymnasts, Wrestlers

Wrestlers and gymnasts who won their letters for 1968-69 were announced Wednesday by the Department of Athletics at Brigham Young University.

This season was the first for the Cougar gymnasts. They competed in meets in California, where they managed to outpoint Stanford and Sacramento State, while losing to California and San Jose State.

Others who earned awards were freshmen and varsity wrestlers. All those who earned letter or numerals are:

Varsity wrestlers—Allen Roe, Provo; Joe Dewey, Provo; Jerry Meservy, Bountiful; Maurice Whitely, Tacoma, Wash.; Ron Leckie, Billings, Mont.; Bill Yancy, Boise, Idaho; and Kent Horne, Glendale, Ariz.
